RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION POLICY

Approved by Board of Directors at its meeting held on September 01, 2022.

PREAMBLE

The enactment of the Companies Act 2013 (the "Act"), Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations) and requirements under the Income Tax Act relating to Transfer Pricing both for International and Domestic transactions, has resulted into a significant importance on the compliances to be made on the Related Party Transactions. Pursuant to Regulation 23 of Listing Regulations, the Company is required to devise a policy on materiality of Related Party Transactions and also on dealing with Related Party Transactions. Dollex Agrotech Limited (the "Company") recognizes that Related Party Transactions can present potential or actual conflicts of interest and may raise questions about whether such transactions are consistent with the Company's and its stakeholders' best interests.

1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF THE POLICY

The Objective of this Policy is to bring uniform practices relating to Related Party Transactions covering the process, methodology, arm's length pricing, approval mechanism, disclosures and compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2013 and rules framed thereunder, Listing Regulations and the Transfer Pricing norms prescribed under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and Accounting Standards. Hence the Company seeks to formulate a robust Policy on Related Party Transactions to deal with the identification, review and approval of Related Party Transactions.

This Policy is applicable to all Related Party Transactions entered by the Company as per the Companies Act, 2013 and the Listing Regulations.

3. POLICY

All Related Party Transactions must be reported to the Audit Committee for its approval in accordance with this Policy.

3.1 IDENTIFICATION OF POTENTIAL RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

- Each director and Key Managerial Personnel is responsible for providing Notice to the Company Secretary of any potential Related Party Transaction involving him/her or his or her relative, including any additional information about the transaction that the Board/Audit Committee may request, for being placed before the Audit Committee and the Board. The Board shall record the disclosure of Interest and the Audit Committee will determine whether the transaction does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this policy.
- The Company strongly prefers to receive such notice of any potential Related Party Transaction at least 10 days in advance so that the Audit Committee has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction.

3.2 REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION BY THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Every Related Party Transactions shall be subject to the prior approval of the Audit Committee whether at a meeting or by resolutions by circulation, except transactions with wholly owned subsidiaries which requires only approval (and not prior approval) of the Audit Committee. Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any Related Party Transaction will abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction.

- The Audit Committee of the Board will review and, if appropriate, approve Related Party Transactions. Accordingly, at first meeting of the Audit Committee in every financial year, management shall present to the Committee the following information with respect to all Related Party Transactions expected to be entered into during that calendar year:
- a) The name of the Related Party and nature of relationship.
 - b) The nature, duration of the contract and particulars of contract or arrangement;
 - c) The material terms of the contract or arrangement including the value, if any;
 - d) Any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any;
 - e) The manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms both included as part of contract and not considered as part of the contract;
 - f) Whether all factors relevant to the contract have been considered, if not, the details of factors not considered with the rationale for not considering those factors;
 - g) Any other information relevant or important for the Audit Committee to take a decision on the proposed transaction; and
 - h) any other information relevant or important for the Board to take a decision on the proposed transaction.

In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Committee shall consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the Related Party Transaction:

- Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on arm's length basis to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- Whether there are any undue compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of the directors/key managerial personnel;
- Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed transaction;
- Whether the ratification of the Related Party Transaction is allowed by law and is sought from the Committee, the reason for not obtaining the prior approval of the Committee and the relevance of business urgency and whether subsequent ratification would be detrimental to the Company; and
- Whether the Related Party transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director, Executive Officer or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the director's, Key Managerial Personnel's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board/ Committee deems relevant.

If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the Board shall consider and approve the Related Party Transaction and the considerations set forth above shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

3.3 APPROVAL OF TRANSACTIONS BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- The Audit Committee or the Board shall, in respect of the related party transactions referred to them for approval, shall after considering the materials placed before them, shall judge if the transaction is the ordinary course of business or at arm's length basis. In case the Audit Committee is not able to arrive at such a decision, the same shall be referred to the Board, which shall decide if the transaction is the ordinary course of business or at arm's length basis.
- For transactions covered under Sec 188 of the Companies Act 2013 as stated below will require Board's approval if not at arm's length and not in the ordinary course of business:
 - a) sale, purchase or supply of any goods or materials;
 - b) selling or otherwise disposing of, or buying, property of any kind;
 - c) leasing of property of any kind;
 - d) availing or rendering of any services;
 - e) appointment of any agent for purchase or sale of goods, materials, services or property;
 - f) such related party's appointment to any office or place of profit in the company, its subsidiary company or associate company; and

3.4 SHAREHOLDERS' APPROVAL

- The Audit Committee shall report all "Material Related Party Transactions" to the Board of Directors. Material Related Party Transactions as specified above in this regulation.
- All material related party transactions and subsequent material modifications as defined by the audit committee under regulation 23(2) shall require prior approval of the shareholders through resolution and no related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.
- All the transactions, other than the Material Related Party Transaction, with the related parties which are not in the Ordinary Course of Business or at Arms' Length Basis shall also require the approval of the shareholders through resolution if the specified thresholds are met and the Related Parties interested in the contract/arrangement shall abstain from voting on such resolution.
